CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp Confederate Veterans was held at their room last night with a large attendance of members. Commander W. A. Smoot occupied the chair.

Several communications were read of interest only to the camp. The application of Comrade Wm. S. Greene, of the engineer corps, for mem-bership was received and referred to a committee. The committee on the examination of the books of the adjutant, treasurer and financial secretary, reported they had found all correct.

Vacancies on the Confederate monument committee caused by the death of Comrade General M. D. Corse and the removal from the city of Comrade T. L. Chase were filled by the appointment of Comrades P. B. Hooe and G. Wm.

Ramsay.

The adjutant was instructed to thank the Geo. E. Pickett Camp, of Richmond, Va., for the very handsomely framed picture of General Pickett's staff recently sent to Lee Camp.

The death of Comrade A. M. Tubman was announced to the camp by the commander, who appointed the fol-lowing to prepare suitable resolutions of respect to his memory: Comrades S. A. Mankin, C. O. Sipple and F. J.

The following comrades were ap-pointed delegates to the meeting of the Grand Camp to be held in Charlottes-ville, with power to appoint their al-ternates: K. Kemper, Wm. H. May and G. Wm. Ramsay.

The annual election of officers took place as follows: Commander, W. A. Smoot; 1st Lieut. Commander, Juo. R. Zimmerman; 2d Lieut. Com-mander, Thomas Perry; 3d Lieut. Com-mander, G. Wm. Ramsay; Adjutant, Edgar Warfield; Quartermaster, R. M. Latham; Chaplain, K. Kemper; Sur-geon, Bedford Brown; Treasurer, R. F. Knox; Officer of the Day, Chas. S. Taylor, jr.; Vidette, P. F. Gorman; Color Bearer, F. J. Power; Executive Committee, P. B. Hooe, Thos. W. White and A. C. Wyckoff.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.-A meeting of the city democratic committee was held last night in the office of the gas works in the City Hall. Messrs. R. T. Cook, M. P. Vincent, George E. Price, B. F. Penn, James Wilkins and Wm.

B. Dobie were present.

The resignation of Mr. L. C. Barley as chairman and member of the com-mittee from the Third ward was received and on motion of Mr. B. F. Penn Mr. Gardner L. Boothe was elected a member of the committee to fill the

It was decided to hold the primary election on Thursday, April, that all known democrats and white voters who pledge themselves to support the ticket nominated be allowed to participate.

It was also determined to hold an other meeting of the committee on Thursday, the 18th instant, at which all candidates will be expected to be

The meeting then adjourned.

"THE FAST MAIL" which appears at the Opera House next Friday evening, is said to be the most successful rail-road and scenic melodrama on the road this season. The climax of each act is strong enough to sustain a whole play, vet so well graded are the features of the piece that one views with increasing interest through the five acts, the murder, the Mississippi river steamer explosion, a realistic engine and six-teen box-cars, the dago dive and the thrilling incidents and hair breadth escap which take place, together with the "full front view of Niagara Falls as seen from the centre of suspension

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Strauss pre-siding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Samuel Bundy, colored, arrested by Officer Griffin for assaulting his wife, was fined $5, and the woman $2.50 for provoking the assault.

Nathaniel Thornton, colored, arrest-ed by Officers Grady and Howson for beating his wife, was fined $10.

Missing Boys.—J. H. Maddox, Chief of Police of Fort Wayne, Texas, has notified City Sergeant Smith of this city to keep a lookout for H. H. and N. Hardy, two boys, aged 16 and 14 respec tively, who left Taylor, Texas, on the 12th of December, 1893, with the intention of going to Roanoke, Vs. It is thought they are somewhere in this neighborhood.

ATTRACTIVE WINDOWS.—The show windows in D. Bendheim & Son's dry goods establishment attracted all pas-sersby last night. They had been de-corated in a tasteful manner, and new spring goods were displayed in them to the best advantage. Knois of people admired the spectacle as long as the windows remained lighted.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Mrs. A. W. C. Waller took place this morning from the residence of her son Mr. Chas. P. Waller, on north Columbus street, and was attended by a large number of friends. The services were conducted by Rev. H. Suter, of Christ Church. The interment was private.

FIRE IN A TOWER.—A fire occurred in the signal tower of the Washington Southern Railway at St. Asaph Junction late Sunday evening. The fire was caused by an explosion of oil, and the employes had considerable difficulty in extinguishing it.

The annual meeting of the Mount Vernon and Marshall Hall Steamboat Company was held yesterday at Har-per's Ferry, W. Va. The following pamed officers were elected: Presi-dent, Joseph C. McKibben; vice presi-dent, L. L. Blake; secretary and treas-urer, D. E. Byrne.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.-The hand some residence on Washington street of ex-Mayor E. E. Downham was turned over last night to the friends of his son, Horace, it being the occasion of the celebration of the latter's twentyfirst birthday. The guests, numbering fourteen, partook of the most inviting repast that the caterer could provide, during which various wines were dispensed from a seemingly inexhausti-ble store. The ex-Mayor gave his son a very handsome gold watch and chain, a very handsome gold watch and chain, the presentation of which was made by Mr. Malcolm Hufty in an appropriate and well received speech, which was briefly responded to. Mr. Downham on being called on made some very fitting remarks in advising the young men present on the best course to adopt in life. Those present were Mesrs. Frank, Harry and Robert Downham Walker Duncan. Davis. Osborn. ham, Walker, Duncan, Davis, Osborn Cogan, Hufty, Smith and Pickett.

READING ROOM NOTES.—The ladies Bible class in the rooms was largely at-tended Sunday afternoon, Mr. Buckner conducting the lesson. The men's Bi-ble class, which is held in the room adjoining, was attended by fifteen young men who listened to Mr. E. W. Gamble who explained the lesson from the 7th chapter of Luke. After these classes were over the general service was conducted in the parlor which was crowded, Mr. Gamble again conducting this service. The singing was excellent. After the sermon Miss Rathbone sang one of those impressive solos of which she is noted.

All are cordially invited to attend the prayer meeting to-night in the parlor. After the prayer meeting is over the Young Men's Brotherhood will meet. All young men are especially invited to this brotherhood.

REINECKER LECTURE.-Prof. Gilman, President of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, to-day delivered the fifth Reinecker lecture at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near this city, before a large and interested audience. Prof. Gilman was introduced by Prof. Grammer in an appropriate speech. Prof. Gilman spoke of the relation of science to the present day and its true position in the thought of the age, saying the three greatest foes of religion are ing the three greates loss of english in consent of the public school system and university extension and the development of the higher branches of education in the past thirty years. Among those present from a distance were Revs. Dabney Davis, R. A. Castleman and Thos. Semmes. During his stay at the Seminary Prof. Gilman is the guest of Prof.

Y. M. S. L.—The regular meeting of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum was largely attended last night. The hon-orary members, which membership was done away with by the adoption of a new constitution, were transferred to active membership. The Lyceum decided to give an oyster roast on Wednesday, April 17. Two members were elected. Mr. Wm. L. Hoy was elected press correspondent for the or-
